BOOK COLLECTION DAY - FRIDAY JANUARY 27, 2017

The Bright Newsagency is now offering an online system that allows you to easily order and securely pay for your Bright P-12 College books and stationery requirements (note - online payment is optional).

To order online, please go to https://brightnewsagency.formstack.com/forms/order

If you wish to order online but don't have Internet access - or would like some assistance with your order - please visit the Bright Newsagency during business hours. You are still welcome to place a paper order at the Newsagency, however, payments for these orders will only be accepted on collection day.

• Collecting your books on the designated day: Books can be collected from the Bright P-12 College Office between 8am and 4.30pm (Friday January 27, 2017). If you have paid online, simply turn up to collect your books. Otherwise, payment must be made on the day (cash, cheque, credit card or EFTPOS available).

• If you cannot collect your books on the designated day: Books will be held at Bright P-12 for two weeks (30/1/17 - 10/2/17). To collect your order between these dates, you will first need to visit the Newsagency to either collect your online payment confirmation or to finalise your payment. Once you have done this, present your payment confirmation to the Bright P-12 College Office in order to receive your books.

Please Note: 1) Books and calculators are non-refundable. 2) All late orders will incur an additional $5 fee.
